TX UM Gift Exchange

During the Meet & Greet event, your contestant will get to exchange fun good luck goodies with their age division. Each contestant is required to bring an inexpensive little goody for the girls in their group. These should be thoughtful and useful for competition days. For example, nut-free snacks, make-up wipes, or chocolate! Each gift should be tagged with the contestant's name and division. You can also include a message and photo.

Remember: do not give anything that could be a choking hazard for the younger contestants and do not include anything with nuts or other allergens. You only have to bring gifts for your contestants age division. The exact number of girls will be given following the pageant deadline. Have fun with this!!!

3-6 years: short or long length, strapless not allow

Dresses showing the midriff are not allowed for any age. All should be age appropriate.

Judging will be based on facial beauty, stage presence, and poise. Contestants are not judged for the type of dress they are wearing but how well it compliments their style and personality as well as the fit of the garment.

→Open Fashion

All contestants will model a professional pant, short, or skirt outfit or a dress (not a formal pageant dress) of their personal style. Have fun with this competition! Note: Open Fashion can be as simple or as high fashion as you like. Halloween type costumes not allowed.

Judging based on facial beauty, stage presence, and poise. Contestants are not judged for the type of outfit they are wearing but how well it compliments their style and personality as well as the fit of the garment.

→Interview

Age-appropriate Sunday's Best/Tailored Dress (Not a formal pageant dress). A skirt/jacket combo or a pant outfit can also be worn.

Universal Baby division - Contestants will have an escort who will introduce the contestant to the judges and will be given this time to share a few fun facts about the contestant. Baby contestants will be judged on their overall appearance, their behavior, and personality.

Universal Mini Division - Contestants will meet with their panel of judge's one-on-one, will introduce themselves, and will be given a series of age appropriate questions by the appointed moderator. Judging will be based on the contestant's confidence, poise, overall appearance, ability to answer the questions given, and personality. Example questions: Who is your best friend? What is your favorite holiday? What is your favorite food?

→Meet & Greet

Texas UM T-Shirt (provided at registration) to be paired with bottoms of any style. Dressy shoes not recommended. All contestants in these two divisions will be in a play setting with the other contestants in their age division. This will be tons of fun for our littles! One chaperone MUST accompany the contestant. Judges will walk around while the contestants are playing! Contestants will sign songs, play age-appropriate games, and show the judges their personality off the stage. Contestants will receive their program book and bring their goody bag gift for their division to distribute.

→Finals

Universal Baby & Mini: Top 10 finalists will recompete by modeling FORMAL WEAR. Top 5 will do a collective judge.

Universal Mini ONLY: Following Top 10 remodeling, a Top 5 will be chosen. Those selected for Top 5 will remain in their FORMAL WEAR and compete in an on-stage interview competition. This will include a single Q & A session between the contestant and emcee. This will be a conversation with age-appropriate questions similar to those asked in interview.

Rules and Regulations - All Ages

COVID-19– the health and safety of our contestants, employees, families, and friends is our top priority. We are diligently monitoring the Coronavirus/COVID-19 and closely watching official information from health authorities, such as the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), as it relates to our events, and competitions. All contestants and their chaperones/guests must sign an Assumption of the Risk and Waiver of Liability Relating to Coronavirus/COVID-19 before participating/attending the State competition.

By participating in this competition, each contestant agrees that all decisions by the judges will be final; questions concerning comments on the score sheet will be allowed, however scores and judges decisions will remain final. Judges' scores/comments will be released to each contestant at the end of State finals.

Flash photography is not permitted in the staging area! All contestants, chaperones, guests/family members, directors, and staff grants permission to Universal Miss and its affiliates, designees, agents, licensees, and invitees to use the image, likeness, actions and statements of the attendee in any live or recorded audio, video, film, or photographic display or other transmission, exhibition, publication, or reproduction made of, or at, the event in any medium, whether now known or hereafter created, or context for any purpose, including commercial or promotional purposes, without further authorization or compensation.

Any unruly, aggressive, inappropriate, or belligerent behavior by contestants, chaperones, or spectators will result in potential contestant disqualification, removal from the event and/or barred participation from future UM Events with the possibility of suspension for following years.

Any contestant that does not adhere to the terms and procedures of this contestant manual will be subject to disqualification from the competition and will automatically forfeit any right to any prizes or awards presented by the competition. Disqualification from the State competition is a serious matter. If a contestant is disqualified, she will not be eligible for a refund.

Contestants and their chaperones should display professional manners, including good sportsmanship, before, during, and after competition. If you do not agree with the judge's decision you may contact us following competition and an executive staff member will be happy to assist in answering all your questions/concerns.

If a contestant is late and misses her place in line, she will be added to the back of the line-up for that event and a 1 point deduction will be given per judge. If a contestant misses the event in its entirety, they will be scored a zero in all areas of judging for the event missed.

All participants, chaperones and guests MUST observe housing rules and curfews imposed by the pageant.

Smoking is only permitted in the designated smoking areas.

Contestant must be a naturally born female. Contestant must be a citizen or legal resident of the United States.

All pageant fees are non-transferable, non-refundable. There is a Forty-Five Dollar ($45) fee assessed for any returned check.

Interview

All contestants WILL go through a short interview session. UM interview allows the judges to get one-on-one time with each contestant. There will be a moderator asking age-appropriate questions to each contestant. Each contestant will come in one at a time. Stand on the X placed in front of the judge's table.

Contestants ages 0-2 years will come into the room with their escort. The escort will be directed to say the contestant's name and age. Then the escort will be directed by the moderator to give a short introduction about the contestant. The escort should tell the judges some fun facts about the contestant. The moderator will NOT give questions to this group.

Contestants ages 3+ years will begin by introducing themselves by saying their name and age, followed by the moderator's questions. Once the contestant's questions are done, they will be directed to exit the room. At that point, their interview session will be completed.

Example Questions-

Age divisions Universal Mini– Universal Young Miss: What is your favorite holiday? Where is your favorite place to go out and eat? What is your favorite school subject or what game do you like to play outside?

Age Divisions Universal Preteen– Teen: What after school activities are you involved in? What do you plan on becoming when you grow up? What is your favorite book? What do you enjoy doing on the weekends?

Age Divisions Universal Miss–Universal Elite Miss: What are some things that help you destress? Where do you see yourself in the next decade? What makes you special? How can you help mentor the youth?

Judge's Tables

Moderator

Enter/Exit

Program Book

Each contestant will get a keepsake program book as part of their entry fee.
Additional copies will be on sale during the weekend. Photos must be submitted by March 30th.

Modeling Guidelines

At UM we want to see your personality during your time on stage. Relax, be yourself and shine on the stage! All contestants will have a 45 second time limit. You do not have to use the entire 45 seconds, but a red light will be flashed when your time on stage is up. You will be required to exit the stage when the red light is seen. There will be a chance for contestants to practice on stage before competition starts. Our staff will work with each contestant to make sure they know exactly what to expect before judged competition.

X's will NOT be placed on the stage.

Note: This is an example of the National Universal Miss stage. Due to room size and riser availability, understand it may be smaller/different at State. This does provide a guide to entrance and exit locations as well as general set up.

Scoring Guide: Finals

Round 1

All ages: The top ten contestants from the preliminary round will have the opportunity to win an additional 50 points that will be added to their preliminary score during finals. These 50 points are broken down into the following weighted subcategories:

Formal Wear (re-compete) (all ages)	Points Possible
Facial Beauty/Overall Look	10 points
Outfit/Grooming	10 points
Poise	10 points
Personality	10 points
Stage Presence	10 points

At this stage the 0-2 age division final results will be announced based off of highest scores. All other division will compete in one additional round.

Round 2

Inclusion of Round 2 will be based on time constraints on Finals Day. In this final round the top five contestants in each division will participate in a final question and answer session with the emcee which will award a possible 50 points to their previous score. These 50 points are broken down into the following weighted subcategories:

On-stage Question (3+ only)	Points Possible
Poise	10 points
Personality	10 points
Speaking Skills	10 points
Confidence	10 points
Answer/Content	10 points

Possible Deductions	Points Possible
Off-stage behavior	-1 points
Lateness to a mandatory event	-1 points
Off-stage inappropriate grooming	-1 points

In the event of a tie, the judges will review scoring from all competitions and make a decision based on the contestant's scoring and over-all impression on the judges. Due to time constraints, on-stage questions may be removed.
